Sermon Learning from The Prophets: 3. Jeremiah: “ Searching for Good Shepherds”

To be saved by the shepherd may not mean a life of total comfort and ease, but it should mean justice, righteousness and safety. Who are the people who are entrusted to our care? Under whose care have we had to live? It is our responsibility to operate in ways that model justice, righteousness and safety. To love and care for those in our lives, particularly the most vulnerable, is to live in a way that tends to their deepest needs.

*Affirmation of Faith: The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

...Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
