Welcome And Congregational Life Announcements

Call to Worship (Psalm 24:1-2, 7, 10)

The earth is the LORD'S and all that is in it, the world and those who live in it;
For he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.
Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Hymn "All Creatures of Our God and King" LASST UNS ERFREUEN

OPENING PRAYER OF ADORATION

Holy and living God, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens and all the earth proclaims your power. When we look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars that you have established, we are amazed at your love and concern for us. We are grateful for your sustaining graces and constant vigilance over our lives. Together, this morning, we rejoice in your goodness and sing your praises. We gather to worship you and receive from your gracious hand the forgiveness and guidance we desperately need. O Lord God, be here among this morning and with all your people and fill all our hearts with overflowing gratitude and love. In Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
All: And also with you.
Please greet each other, "Peace be with you."

Scripture Reading: Ruth 1:1-18; 2:1-5, 8-12

1:1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons.

1:2 The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.

1:3 But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons.

1:4 These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years,

1:5 both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

1:6 Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had considered his people and given them food.

1:7 So she set out from the place where she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way back to the land of Judah.

1:8 But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back each of you to your mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

1:9 The LORD grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband." Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud.

1:10 They said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people."

1:11 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?

1:12 Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight and bear sons,

1:13 would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has turned against me."

1:14 Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

1:15 So she said, "See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."

1:16 But Ruth said,

"Do not press me to leave you or to turn back from following you!

Where you go, I will go;

Where you lodge, I will lodge;
your people shall be my people,
and your God my God.

1:17 Where you die, I will die—
there will I be buried.

May the LORD do thus and so to me,
and more as well,
if even death parts me from you!"

1:18 When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

2:1 Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, a prominent rich man, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

2:2 And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain, behind someone in whose sight I may find favor." She said to her, "Go, my daughter."

2:3 So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

2:4 Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem. He said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you." They answered, "The LORD bless you."

2:5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "To whom does this young woman belong?"

2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women.

2:9 Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped, and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

2:10 Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"

2:11 But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.

2:12 May the LORD reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!"

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken

*Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people through His own blood, suffered outside the gate.
So, let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. Hebrews 13:12-13*

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/4 time. The melody is primarily in the Soprano and Alto parts, with the Tenor and Bass parts providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with some lines having two parts (e.g., '1. Je - sus, I my cross have tak - en, 2. Let the world de - spise and leave me;'). The score consists of eight systems of music, each with a vocal staff and a corresponding line of lyrics.

1. Je - sus, I my cross have tak - en,
2. Let the world de - spise and leave me;
all to leave and fol - low Thee;
they have left my Sav - ior too.

all I've sought or hoped or known,
God of wis - dom, love and might,

yet how rich is my con - di - tion:
foes may hate and friends dis - own me:

God and heav'n are still my own.
show Thy face and all is bright.

3. Man may trouble and distress me;
'twill but drive me to Thy breast.
Life with trials hard may press me;
heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
Oh, 'tis not in grief to harm me
while Thy love is left to me;
oh, 'twere not in joy to charm me,
were that joy unmixed with Thee.

4. Go, then, earthly fame and treasure;
come disaster, scorn, and pain;
in Thy service, pain is pleasure;
with Thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called Thee Abba, Father;
I have stayed my heart on Thee;
storms may howl and clouds may gather;
all must work for good to me.

5. Soul, then know thy full salvation,
rise o'er sin and fear and care;
joy to find in every station,
something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
think what Father's smiles are thine;
think that Jesus died to win thee—
child of heaven, canst thou repine?

6. Haste thee on from grace to glory,
armed by faith, and winged by prayer.
Heaven's eternal days before thee;
God's own hand shall guide us there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
hope shall change to glad fruition,
faith to sight, and prayer to praise.
